The Planning Commission continued discussion of the draft amendments, completing its review of the 183 items outlined in the Stakeholder/Planning Commission Public Hearing Comment Matrix and the draft amendments. The Planning Commission directed staff to prepare clean versions of the draft documents incorporating all of the text amendments discussed to date.

Staff will draft a letter to the Board of Supervisors containing the Planning Commission recommendations discussed to date and will provide the letter to the Commission prior to the April 28, 2010 Planning Commission Worksession.

A joint meeting with the Board of Supervisors will be held on May 5, 2010 to discuss the draft Chesapeake Bay Preservation Act (CBPA) amendments. Staff will provide a presentation to brief the Board on the significant issues and outcomes discussed by the Planning Commission in preparation for the May 24, 2010 Board public hearing.

A motion was made by Mr. Bayless, seconded by Mr. Ruedisueli, to advertise the Draft Amendments as amended on April 19, 2010. (7-0-2, Keirce, Maio absent).
